

Well how about a halt to logging, especially down here on the far south coast, that would make a difference!

I really have lost faith in the 'good intention' of government and anybody associated with it.

All talk no action...The Koala Foundation have been pleading for something yet you people give lip service.

Regards

Donalea Eaton, EDEN