

NORTH HEAD QUARANTINE STATION

LIST OF FIGURES

1.0 INTRODUCTION

- Figure 1: The Conservation Management Plan study area
Figure 2: Composite aerial photograph of North Head, 1999
Figure 3: 'Sydney Heads' [Detail] showing North Head and Manly
Figure 4: North Head showing the Study area and the neighbouring North Head precincts
Figure 5: The Quarantine Station Core precinct, showing the areas adopted within the precinct
Figure 6: Portion 2763, 2764 2765 and 2766: Parish of Manly Cove, County of Cumberland, 1977 Survey

2.0 EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

No figures

3.0 ABORIGINAL HERITAGE

- Figure 1: Robert Marsh Westmacott, Port Jacksons [sic] Heads, NSW
Figure 2: Port Jackson Painter, 'A Native going to Fish with a Torch and flambeaux, while his Wife and children are broiling for their Supper'
Figure 3: Port Jackson Painter, 'Mr White, Harris & Lang with a party of Soldiers visiting Botany Bay Colebee at that Place when wounded near Botany Bay', [detail]
Figure 4: Thomas Watling, A Groupe on the North shore, of Port Jackson New south Wales
Figure 5: Artist unknown [Port Jackson Painter] 'Mr. Waterhouse endeavouring to break the spear after Govr. Phillip was wounded by Wil-le-maring where the whale was cast on shore on Manly Cove'

4.0 HISTORICAL OVERVIEW

- Figure 1: John V. Hill, Sydney Heads [Detail] 1854
Figure 2: Augustus Earle, 'Sydney Heads,' c1825
Figure 3: Plan of NHQS 2000 showing Building 56
Figure 4: George Penkivil Slade, 'Harmony, Quarantine hulk'. 1870
Figure 5: 'Quarantine Station, Port Jackson.' 1872
Figure 6: Plan of NHQS 2000 showing First Class buildings
Figure 7: Plan of NHQS 2000 showing L2 and Buildings H1, P22, S1
Figure 8: Spring Cove, Quarantine Station & Richard Cheer's Land Grant c1831
Figure 9: North Head Quarantine Station: Phase III i 1837-38
Figure 10: 'The Quarantine Station, Point Nepean', 1877
Figure 11: North Head Quarantine Station: Phase III ii 1838-1872
Figure 12: Police Precautions in Bellevue Street, Sydney due to smallpox epidemic. Australasian Sketcher, 1881
Figure 13: North Head Quarantine Station: Phase IV 1873-1880
Figure 14: North Head Quarantine Station: Phase V 1881-1909
Figure 15: Construction of Wharf for Quarantine Station, 1917
Figure 16: 'Waiting for inoculation'. 1919
Figure 17: North Head Quarantine Station: Phase VI 1910-1950
Figure 18: North Head Quarantine Station: Phase VII 1950-1989
Figure 19: The Roman 'Catholic' Land Grant of sixty acres c1831
Figure 20: Manly Peace Memorial Hospital, twelve acres c1860
Figure 21: Aerial photograph, 1930, prior to the construction of the North Head Battery and Barracks
Figure 22: The Parkhill Reserve
Figure 23: Robert Emerson Curtis, 'Unloading Big Gun' 'North Head', NSW,' 1932

- Figure 24: North Head Sydney, From Field Books H4553. H4572, 1936
 Figure 25: Aerial photograph of North Head, 1942
 Figure 26: The North Head Sewerage Works; The Deportee Camp & Migrant Hostel [now AIPM]; and the North Fort Army Area 1940 to 1947.
 Figure 27: Small Pox in Sydney, Illustrated Sydney News, 1801
 Figure 28: Carving on rock at Quarantine Station at North Head, 1898
 Figure 29: 'The Survivors of the Constitution,' 1905
 Figure 30: Aerial photograph of Manly; the [then] School of Artillery and North Fort; and the Quarantine Station, 1965
 Figure 31: Parish of Manly Cove: County of Cumberland [detail], 1970
 Figure 32: Banners in Manly reflect strong community interest in the future of the Quarantine Station

5.0 EUROPEAN/ASIAN CULTURAL HERITAGE

- Figure 1: Joseph Lycett, 'View of the heads, at the entrance to Port Jackson, New South Wales', c.1822
 Figure 2: The study area curtilage, showing the precincts
 Figure 3: Locations of recorded inscriptions
 Figures 4 & 5: Rock inscriptions within Quarantine Station and at The Old Mans Hat
 Figure 6: Historical Archaeological Sites, NHQS core precinct
 Figure 7: The boundary wall east of Quarantine [south] precinct
 Figures 8 & 9: Looking into the Quarantine Station precinct.
 Figure 10: Samuel Prout, Quarantine Burial Ground, Port Jackson
 Figure 11: The Constitution Monument
 Figure 12: Aerial view of Quarantine Station ND but c1940
 Figure 13: The stone obelisk
 Figure 14: Map of the Quarantine Station Precincts, showing Areas within the precincts
 Figure 15: The Quarantine Station Core Precinct showing the Areas within the precinct
 Figure 16: Key Plan of the Wharf Area
 Figure 17: Aerial photograph of the wharf Area and Cannae Point
 Figure 18: The Kookaburra at the Wharf c1920
 Figure 19: Detail of a 1908 map of Quarantine Station showing building works implemented by Dr. Mackellar in 1903
 Figure 20: The Wharf precinct : Site Features 1998
 Figure 21: The evolution of the Wharf area c1848 to 1925
 Figures 22 & 23: The Wharf Area from the west
 Figure 24: Early photo of the Wharf at Quarantine Station
 Figure 25: Quarantine Procedures
 Figure 26: Wharf Area : Luggage Store [A15 to A17]
 Figure 27: Lady Jean Foley at the wharf area inscriptions
 Figure 28: Aerial photograph of the Wharf Hospital and Isolation Ward areas
 Figure 29: The Hospital and the Isolation Ward Area: Key Plan
 Figure 30: The Quarantine Station from the north c1940 [Detail]
 Figure 31: Evolution of the Hospital and the Doctor's / Nurses' Quarters
 Figures 32, 33 & 34: The Hospital interior and exterior
 Figure 35: The Isolation Ward Observation Block from the north c1916
 Figures 36 & 37: The Isolation ward verandah and west elevation 1999
 Figure 38: Key plan: The Third Class/Asiatics Area
 Figure 39: Quarantine Station Pavilion for Asiatics looking north, c1910
 Figures 40, 41 & 42: The Third Class and Asiatics blocks 1999
 Figure 43: 'Third Class Dining Room', Ruth Eager, Watercolor, 1993
 Figure 44: Key Plan: The First Class Area
 Figure 45: Aerial view of Quarantine Station ND but c1940
 Figure 46: The First Class Precinct looking north, 1935
 Figures 47 & 48: The First Class buildings, 1999
 Figure 49: The First Class Dining Room
 Figure 50: Key Plan: The Second Class Area
 Figure 51: The Second Class or Lynes Buildings, ND but c1940

- Figures 52: The verandahs of the Second Class buildings, 1999
 Figure 53: Key Plan: The Administration Area
 Figure 54: Spring Cove Precinct 1999
 Figure 55: Parkhill Precinct 1999
 Figure 56: The Quarantine [South] Precinct 1999
 Figure 57: Key Plan: The Marine Precinct
 Figure 58 : Berry's Bay, showing the seawall of the Wharf, January 1919
 Figure 59 : Construction of Berry's bay Wharf, June 1917
 Figure 60: Plan of Berry's Bay Quarantine Depot

6.0 NATURAL HERITAGE

- Figure 1: The informative sign welcoming visitors to North Head
 Figure 2: View from the Hospital to Balmoral
 Figure 3: View from the Hospital to South Head and inner Sydney Harbour
 Figure 4: Daisy Bush, Olearia tomentosa, with native Sweet Pittosporum, Pittosporum undulatum, in the foreground
 Figure 5: The vertical sandstone 80 metre cliff facing the sea and contrasting flat heath covered tops
 Figure 6: Existing Topography NHQS
 Figure 7: Slope Analysis
 Figure 8: Existing Circulation
 Figure 9: Flannel Flower, Actinotus helianthi
 Figure 10: Tick Bush, Kunzea ambigua
 Figure 11: The white feathery flowers of Tick Bush, Kunzea ambigua
 Figure 12: The grove of native Broad-leafed Paperbark, Melaleuca quinquenervia
 Figure 13: Existing Vegetation
 Figure 14: The Wharf Precinct landscape and vegetation types, 1998
 Figure 15: Radiata Pine, Pinus radiata, planted in front of the 'Asiatics' accommodation
 Figure 16: Hoop Pine, Araucaria cunninghamiana, planted near the funicular railway embankment near A11
 Figure 17: The line planting of Canary Island Date Palms, Phoenix canariensis, leading to Quarantine Bay and A14
 Figure 18: Looking towards the Quarantine Station from the Fairfax Walking Track on North Head
 Figure 19: A grove of introduced Radiata Pine, Pinus radiata
 Figure 20: Introduced Hibiscus has been used as an ornamental shrub in a few places
 Figure 21: The simple red flower of Hibiscus is one of very few ornamental shrubs planted on the Quarantine Station
 Figure 22: The glasshouse, constructed in 1957 and refurbished in 1985
 Figure 23: The rainforest gully beside the road to Quarantine Bay
 Figure 24: A general view of the edge of the rainforest gully showing the impenetrable nature of the edge vegetation
 Figure 25: The heath vegetation of the Quarantine Station precinct looking towards the spectacular cliff faces of South Head, the coastline and outer Sydney Harbour
 Figure 26: The approach to the Quarantine Station and North Head
 Figure 27: Camfields Stringybark, Eucalyptus camfieldii, in the road fork within 100 metres of the entrance
 Figure 28: Leaves, buds, flowers and fruits of the endangered Camfields Stringybark, Eucalyptus camfieldii
 Figure 29: North [Sydney] Harbour Aquatic Reserve
 Figure 30: Aerial View of North Head
 Figure 31: Replanting on North Head as part of restoration work following soil erosion and burning

7.0 ASSESSING SIGNIFICANCE

- Figure 1: Sydney Harbour National Park [East]
 Figure 2: Area adopted for Register of National Estate Nomination

- Figure 3: 'Quarantine Station, Hobson's Bay.' Harold John Graham, 1881, pen and ink drawing
- Figure 4: Arrival at Ellis Island
- Figure 5: The Eastern Wharf, Grosse Île
- Figure 6: The Western Wharf, Disinfection Building and Cabin Detention
Building, Grosse Île
- Figure 7: The Boiler for the Steam Disinfection Apparatus, Grosse Île
- Figure 8: The Medical Assistant's Residence, Grosse Île
- Figure 9: The Medical Assistant's Residence, Grosse Île
- Figure 10: The Battery, Grosse Île
- Figure 11: Part of the island's western sector, Grosse Île