Citizens Jury
Guidelines for Jurors

Role

The Bronte Catchment Project Team aims to ensure that the Citizens Jury is an inclusive, accessible and quality process. This involves providing a framework within which jurors can deliberate, discuss and debate, while others can witness, learn and evaluate.

Jurors are required to:

• Read and accept the following rules of participation.
• Read and accept the confidentiality agreement.
• Deliberate over evidence presented by the expert witnesses
• Report on the deliberation process

Permission to attend

Jurors are bound by a confidentiality agreement. Permission to participate is based on the juror’s acceptance of this agreement.

Rules of participation

• Jurors are not allowed to disclose the content of their deliberations
• Jurors will have the option of presenting a minority report
• Jurors are permitted to request closed sessions for deliberation
• Witnesses who will be presenting evidence to the jury are there by the project’s request. Jurors are to respect aims and objectives of process, jury, project etc
• Jurors to respect the roles of all participants

Bronte Catchment Project

Will

• Treat all jurors fairly and equally
• Provide jurors opportunities to feedback on process.
• Incorporate juror perspectives into evaluation of process

For more information, please contact Roberta Ryan and Susan Rudland at Elton Consulting
(02) 9387 2600 or email roberta@elton.com.au or susan@elton.com.au