This is total garbage!!!

Do they think we are stupid?

It would take a team of lawyers to work out what is "legal".

There are many acts that affect farming and clearing now, plus all the new council "red light" areas like overlays, zonings and vague regulations that no doubt override or restrict whatever reforms are claimed here.

Eg. We know that is why councils covered everything in new restrictions.

Its all or nothing.

Get rid of the DEH, and all laws which override our private property rights. Or get more Jails to put farmers in.

The people have woken up, and it wont be just Labor that they abandon to the bin of history!

Sincerely

Damien Rogers
