Important information for applicants

Information provided in licence applications

It is an offence under the Biodiversity Conservation Act 2016 to provide false or misleading information in, or in connection with a licence application.

Licence conditions

All licences are issued with conditions, including that records of all animals harmed under this licence must be provided to the NPWS office that issued the licence within seven days of the expiry of the licence. It is an offence under the Biodiversity Conservation Act 2016 to contravene a condition of a licence.

Privacy Statement

This application form contains information that identifies you and is defined as 'personal information' under the NSW Privacy and Personal Information Act 1998. Information supplied on this form will be used by delegated officers of the Department of Planning and Environment to assess your application and will be entered into a computer system for granting licences. You may access and amend your personal information at any time by contacting the department.

Public register

As required by the Biodiversity Conservation Act 2016, a public register of biodiversity conservation licences is published on the department website. The public register does not include personal information of individuals (e.g. name, postal and email address, phone number and date of birth). Information about the location of plants and animals covered by licences will be restricted to postcode.
