

S00064 – Alan Gageler

I am very supportive of the proposed changes as they relate to exempting low-risk companion reptiles, birds and amphibians from requiring licences and instead relying on the proposed codes. The existing licensing scheme is unnecessarily bureaucratic both as to its underlying purpose and its duplication of licenses and associated fees for those who have several classes of native animals. The proposed codes appear appropriate, at least as they related to those companion animals with which we are familiar