

S00051 – Amanda

All native animals should be kept on licences and all breeders whether owners of native animals or not, should have to apply for a breeders licence and be registered to cut down the amount of low quality and backyard bred animals on the market