

S00036 – Benjamin Newham

Keeping Australian native animals?

Americans keep sugargliders.. We can't.. so people get cats..Cats that then kill the native animals (like sugar gliders)... why can't we please relax the bans on keeping Australian native animals..... We have the technology now to control the industry and NOT allowing it is causing more damage than allowing and monitoring it.

I have family in the Eco-conservation field and we have spoken at length about this.