

S00081 – Bronwen Halcroft

The following comments only pertain to Reptile keeping and licensing:

I support the proposed risk based approach to native animal keeping.

I support the retention of licensing for pet shops and a requirement for licensing to sell native animals over the internet or from a person's home.

I support the retention of import and export licenses to monitor interstate movements of native animals