

S00055 – Daniel Hannah

Hi,

I actually think it is currently too easy to keep a licence. Getting a licence is easy which is good but I think more should have to be done to keep a licence. I also understand that someone has to regulate this which costs money and time.

I think something similar to a truck driver's log book - every month, feeding, weight and length - to keep people honest and looking after the pets.