

S00068 – Gail Versluis

I agree with the update on codes of practice in particular with the increase in bird and reptile species no longer required to have a license. The guidelines for keeping reptiles are very thorough and I support these.