

S00086 – Lynette Garrahy

I feel keeping the licenses for all reptiles helps protect our animals. They can be tracked easily and it makes it safer for them. It helps with animals being purchased from breeders instead of being taken from the wild. Licenses help with a legal age limit that hopefully leads to a more responsible owner as well. would like to see all licenses remain compulsory .