

S00116 – Michael Gill

The licensing rules and conditions must not be changed or amended to dilute or facilitate in any way the harming, capture or keeping of currently protected native animals.

Sheep Station Creek Landcare wishes to formally register its opposition to such changes.

The preservation of the integrity of all native species of flora and fauna and their protected status must form the basis of Australia's commitment to biodiversity.