

S00045 – Robyn McMaster

I feel it is unnecessary for several of the birds to have to have licenses for example budgerigars which have always been children's pets and parents will need to obtain a license for these birds.