

S00087 – William (Bill) Humphries

This code of practice appears to be a giant waste of time and resources.

How will the points raised be policed. There are currently persons trading birds without holding licences.

I have been abused in the past for not selling birds to non registered buyers.

It will be similar to the gun control and only effect honest breeders,or bird clubs whose members value birds.