

TIME	WEDNESDAY 16 MAY	NOTES
2:00pm – 5:00pm	Site Tour: Central Station Go behind the scenes to see the clocktower, grand marble staircase, hidden ‘clock room’, ‘ghost platforms’, the recently restored mural in the booking hall, and the Western forecourt stone conservation and light reconstruction. Presenter and Guide: Craig McPherson, Senior Heritage Specialist, Sydney Trains

TIME	THURSDAY 17 MAY	NOTES
8.30am 9:00am	Registration Acknowledgement of Country
9:05am	Welcome: Heritage Division Update Outline of upcoming strategic projects, policies, programs and operational matters Presenters: Pauline McKenzie (Executive Director), Tim Smith (Director Operations) and Jane Holden (A/Director Strategy), Heritage Division, Office of Environment and Heritage.	15mins PPT + 5 mins Qs
9:30am	Presentation: A new Sense of Heritage An international case study site will be used as a lens to explore how a sense of the past is always rooted in everyday life. The presentation will seek to pose questions about how dominant notions of ‘heritage’ - used to support national interests - may be in need of revision. Presenter: A/Prof Emma Waterton, Director of Academic Programs (Geography, Tourism and Planning), University of Western Sydney	45mins + 15mins
10:30am	Morning Tea	30mins
11:00am	Information Session: Aboriginal Cultural Heritage – Repatriation Program Understand the policies and processes that guide the return of Aboriginal ancestral remains and sacred objects to their rightful owners. Presenters: TBA, Heritage Division, Office of Environment and Heritage	30 mins
11:30am	Information Session: Local Heritage Advisor on the ground - using and creating opportunities as they arise. The Weddin Historic Homes Project will be used as an example to explore new approaches for community based heritage studies in regional NSW to enhance small town sustainability and resilience. Presenter: Sue Jackson-Stepowski, Jackson-Stepowski Heritage Planning, and Heritage Advisor, Weddin Shire and Lachlan Shire Councils.	45 mins

TIME	THURSDAY 17 MAY	NOTES
12:15pm	Lunch Technology & Communication Kiosk	45 mins
1:00pm	Presentation & Discussion: Brett Whiteley's House and Studio Exploring the SHR nomination of Brett Whiteley's House and Studio, and expanded visual curtilage. Addressing challenges / opportunities to better negotiate complex listings. Presenter: Lucinda Varely, North Sydney Council	45 mins
1:45pm	Technical Session: Heritage Compliance This session will outline the Heritage Compliance Program, including: principles of the Framework and Policy, working with jointly with councils, how people should report non-compliance and trends in the types and numbers of compliance matters dealt with by OEH. Presenters: TBA, Heritage Division, Office of Environment and Heritage	45min
2:30pm	Afternoon Tea	15 mins
2:45pm	Information Session: Heritage Division Library The OEH Library Service provides a range of information services to external clients. Research pathways will be highlighted to further support industry knowledge. Presenter: Louise Mahon, Librarian, Department of Planning and Environment Cluster	20 mins PPT + 10 mins Qs
3:15pm	Keynote Presentation: Heritage, Adaptive Reuse and Sustainability Adaptive reuse of the historic Carlton and United Brewery building on Sydney CBD fringe site that provides a model of how new technology can be integrated with an important historic structure. The design respects both the historic fabric as well as making the vital new technology a memorable part of the urban context. Presenter: Alec Tzannes, Irving Street Brewery, Central Park Sydney	45 mins + 15 mins Qs
4.15pm	Wrap Up: Information about Dinner and Friday	10mins

TIME	THURSDAY 17 MAY	NOTES
7:00pm – 10:30pm	Conference Dinner Keynote Address The Hon. Gabrielle Upton MP, Minister for Heritage Heritage Heroes program Presentation on the video project that celebrates individuals and groups who are protecting and sharing their local heritage through Heritage Near Me funded projects.

TIME	FRIDAY 18 MAY	NOTES
8:30am 9:00am	Registration Acknowledgment of Country
9:05am	Presentation and Workshop Session: Engineering Heritage - Change of use and sustainability This session will present case studies to better understand how industrial heritage sites can protect significance, while enhancing sustainability outcomes and supporting potential site change of use. The workshop will focus on new 'long term survival' challenges such as ownership, practical and safe access as well as economic considerations in restoration, maintenance and on-going management. Presenters: Max Underhill and Jon Breen, Engineers Australia (Heritage Group)	60mins
10:00am	Morning Tea	30 mins
10:30am	Presentation and Roundtable Discussion The Heritage Council of NSW and the Government Architect NSW will work with industry practitioners to source detailed feedback about proposed new guidelines designed to support future policy for heritage buildings, sites and precincts. Presenters: Lee Hillam, Marissa Looby, and Dillon Kombumerri, Office of the Government Architect NSW, Stephen Davies, Chair Heritage Council of NSW, David Logan, Partner GML Heritage and Heritage Council Technical Subcommittee member and Xanthe O'Donnell, Heritage Division, Office of Environment and Heritage	2 hours
12:30pm	Lunch Heritage Information Kiosks Attendees will have the opportunity to explore heritage initiatives and associated program materials presented by a range of industry professionals.	60 mins

TIME	FRIDAY 18 MAY	NOTES
1:30pm	Heritage and Accessibility The session will outline BCA requirements for access and the need to respect heritage, then detail a process to solve problems with a range of illustrations. Presenter: Eric Martin & Associates, Architects and Accessibility Consultants	60 mins
2:30pm	Case Study: Restoring Cultural Landscapes - Lithgow Blast Furnace The multi-staged major works / restoration project will be presented to convey how the revitalisation program - focused on providing visitor safety, accessibility and a new interpretation strategy - was used to anchor cultural tourism in Lithgow. Presenters: Matthew Johnson (Lithgow City Council), Margi Fallon (Integrated Design Assoc.) and Ray Christison (Highground Consulting)	45 mins
3:15pm	Networking and Afternoon Tea	45mins
4:00pm	Forum Close & Evaluation Attendees to complete program evaluation	